

Sophie Allport

TRADE SS24

Welcome

This season gives us so many reasons to celebrate – the start of warmer weather, longer days and our gardens coming into bloom. For us there is no better time to reconnect with nature and our friends and family, as we emerge from a long, dark winter. Our new collections are made up of soft neutrals, delicate pinks and blues, greens and yellows, to gently awaken us.

Start the new season with our Spring Chicken, the perfect print for Easter dining with friends and family. New floral designs include Blossom, our sixth collection in collaboration with the National Trust, and Tulips featuring Sophie's hand painted watercolour-style design with gently swaying stems. And no summer is complete without fresh strawberries, so we've given our popular print a fresh new look.

We hope this brochure inspires you for the season ahead, showcasing fresh designs and accessories to breathe new life into homes for spring-summer 2024.
